Guest Lecture on Communication Skills in English-

1. A guest Lecture on “Communication Skills in English” was organised under the guidance of Principal Dr. A. K. Bodkhe on 6th April, 2023. Prof. Dr. Anup Gumble, Arts, Commerce & Science College, Arvi was the guest speaker. He guided the students about the basic communication in English language and gave very useful and necessary tips to ease learning of grammar and pronunciation. By quoting some examples from literature and language, he made his speech very much interactive, which extended very important and useful information to the students. Dr. N. T. Mane, Head, Dept. of English, in his presidential speech, appealed the students to be aware about the importance of English and make use of all the resources available in this college. Library is very rich to help you in this regard, he added. The students were present for this programme.

'Overcome fear of English language to learn it'

■ Annavati Bureau
AMRAVATI, Apr 17

"ENGLISH is a global language and its use is unique in every field. If one wants to master English communication skills, then he has to overcome the fear of English. Fear of a language can be a barrier to communicating in that language," said Prof Shetal Tayde, Head of English Department from Baskrushna Mahavidyalaya, Daryapur. He was speaking at the English Communication Skill, Soft Skill and Personality Development workshop organised by Department of English from J D Patil Sanghadkar College, Daryapur, recently.

Dr Anul Bodkhe, Principal of J D Patil Sanghadkar College, Daryapur presided over the programme, while Prof Dr Namrata

Prof Shetal Tayde guiding the workshop.

Mane, Head of Department of English and also the Coordinator of the workshop was prominently present on the dais.

Speaking further Prof Tayde said that English can be mastered with practice. Most of the words we use in our daily life are in English. We communicate daily by using Marathi and English words together. Therefore, we can develop English communication skills by mastering the English language easily, said by Prof Tayde. Prof Dr Tayde laid emphasis on reading, listening, writing and communication skills to the students in very simple language in an interesting and humorous style. He also gave detailed guidance on skill development by giving examples from daily life.

Dr Anul Bodkhe in his presidential speech conveyed the students about the need and importance of English language. He highlighted that English language is very important to provide employment opportunities and to communicate at national and international level. He said that to master the language it is necessary to practice it and the students should strive for it. Therefore, I've keep practicing English language in daily communication, we can learn this language well, said Dr Bodkhe.

Prof Dr Namrata Mane introduced the workshop and presented the outline of this workshop. The workshop was conducted by Prof Dr Angha Tak and vote of thanks was proposed by Nural Rajput. Students from Arts, Commerce and Science branches attended the workshop in large numbers.
